The Feast of Church Hill Grange.

Whoever loves good living, Good fellowship and mirth, Who loves to sit at ease,
The Grange of the earth, Mid barbees and hogs Forever he may range.
But tonight he'll find something
The Feast of Church Hill Grange.
The roads are full of coaches, Long laughter fills the air, Long tables fill the green grove With indoors rich and rare;
And everything excellent And beautiful and strange Festivities take a halo
The Feast of Church Hill Grange.
With beating pans the ducky cook, Homes for the trotting gloves, Hot pepper, vinegar and salt,
The juicy carcases throwing;
The "Afric" "peasum-broilers" scorch,
The modern kitchen ranges,
And Kean like they barbeque
The Feast of Church Hill Grange.
Dick Caudle is a gentleman, To satiate his high light,
The way he carves mutton, Would shame the cook's eye;
And stately dames are telling Hot coffee on the range, Blest spirits how they brighten
The Feast of Church Hill Grange!
The wagons all are laden With ham, sweet and nice, Just like the dressed geese,
For all men without price, Delectable spruce sandwiches, For him who's fond of change—It costs the hungry nothing,
The Feast of Church Hill Grange.
High cake in saucy caldrons, Tall pyramids of loaves, Billions of white bread sweeter Than poets ever sang; Roast turkey, sweet and nutmeg—Their multitude is strange, It would stuff the host of Xerxes,
The Feast of Church Hill Grange!
Here drink, ye faint and thirsty,
And here, ye weary, rest, Where fair and gentle women Wait on the hungry guest.
Hush, oh way-worn pilgrims, Care which the brain derange; Eat, drink, be merry and enjoy
The Feast of Church Hill Grange.
But see the sun is setting:
All things must have an end, We leave with warm "good-byes" you For every Church Hill friend.
Till time is a destroyer,
And time will never change, Till time will never change,
The Feast of Church Hill Grange.

NORTH CHRISTIAN.

CHURTON, Ky., June 2.—An effort is being made to re-organize the Grange at this place and the effort should be crowned with success.
Farmers should heed not the voice of those who think it is only a scheme to get some of their money. A man whose knowledge extends no farther than the limits of his own county can make the vast amount saved by such an organization.
The Croftons who attended the convention at White Plains Sunday will ever keep in memory the people of that village and vicinity for their kind hospitality.
John M. Della presented his writing of the finest and largest mustard, the other day, we ever saw. So large were the bundles that three men could not take all the mustard out of the house. It was a hog-joke and an average family could eat it for a week. Now this may seem like a joke, but those doing it will be surprised with the profit upon receipt of a postage stamp.
J. E. Croft went to Nashville this week.
The John V. Boyd Post held memorial services here Monday at the M. E. Church. As the sun put forth golden rays of light, old soldiers with their wives and children began to gather in and as they entered the church the church would not accommodate one half the people, but soon a heavy cloud began to form in the west and moved gently over us until our streets were a sea of water, but notwithstanding the rain, promptly at 11 A. M., the Post marched from the hall with Master Oscar Drasler at their head carrying the flag. Beautiful flowers covered the speaker's stand and as they entered the choir began to sing "O Heavenly Land." Col.
A. H. Clark delivered the oration of the day in a fitting and an appropriate manner, as only those who possess such ability as the Colonel can do. It was a fitting tribute to the Nation's dead.
It has been rumored here that Hampson Walker, who once lived and was committed to the penitentiary for cutting his throat.
Every body will be interested in the June Number of Denmore's Monthly, as it is an exceedingly interesting one.
The steel plate, "The Fate of Nydia," is novel and very beautiful, both in execution and design, and other illustrations are also very fine.
The Fashion Department of this excellent publication is so well edited as to lead many to suppose that it is the fashion magazine of the world.
In fact, it is a literary magazine and in reality it is a literary Magazine of the highest order, with all its departments so ably conducted that every member of the family watches with interest for its arrival.
We know of no magazine better deserving to be called a Family Magazine, and it ought to be found in every refined household. That the publisher is a prophet, tells where it stands on the Temperance question. Published by W. Jennings

Louisville Tobacco Market.
[By Glover & Durrott.]
The sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,841 hubs, with receipts for the same period of 3,508 hubs. Sales on our market since January 1st, amount 50,622 hubs. The improvement on dark tobacco has not been rapid but it is gradually gaining strength and its position is considered very strong.
Considerable tobacco is being taken now, by out-side speculation on account of the short crop prospects. The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco: Trash—$1.00 to 2.00.
Com. to med. leaf—$2.25 to 3.00.
Good to med. leaf—$3.00 to 5.00.
Good to fine leaf—$4.50 to 7.00.
Leaf of extra length—$5.00 to 7.00.
Wrappery Leaf—$7.00 to 12.00.

The Century for June.
The frontispiece of the June Century is a striking portrait of Count Leo Tolstoy, the Russian novelist, engraved by Thomas Johnson from a photograph.
An illustrated paper of the widest popular bearing is the second of Professor W. O. Atwater's articles on food, entitled "How Food Nourishes the Body," and presenting in compact form a large amount of the latest deductions of chemical analysis and other scientific investigation in this department.
The Lincoln History makes marked progress toward the presidential contest of 1860 by the consideration of events which form a background to a proper presentation of Lincoln's personality, events also which are necessary to an understanding of his po-

POLITICAL POINTS.

Here, you Republicans, how is this?
Kentucky State bonds are quoted above par. Ours has to put out bonds at a discount to put some money in their empty treasury. Let Mr. O'Bradley take the stand.—Louisville Times.
The working men should bear in mind that Mr. William O'Bradley is in favor of taxing them directly for the purpose of improving the navigable rivers of the State. This policy, if adopted, would double the sum paid by each citizen in the way of State taxes.—Louisville Times.
The Louisville Republican has not strengthened its cause by reprinting Preston's attack on Gen. Hucker from the Louisville Journal of September 27, 1881. It is a remarkable piece of vituperation, written at the beginning of the war and inspired by the bitterness that divided not only states but families. What Preston thought or said of Hucker these distracting days can have no influence or bearing on the present contest.—Louisville Commercial.
The Hon. Henry Powell, of Henderson, is the most talked of man in the district for La Follet's place in congress. Powell comes of a noted family and is considered by those that I have talked with as the best man in the district for the place. With Powell, from Henderson, and Ellis, from Devil's, the Second District can rest assured that her wants will be well attended to, no matter which of the two should be chosen to represent her interest at Washington.—Commercial.
Mr. Bradley and his fellow-Republicans claim that there has been corruption in the management of the State Government of Kentucky. They do not pretend to say who has been the beneficiaries of that corruption.
They point to no man who has got richly hold a State office. If they can find such a man let them unmask him and place him upon his defense.
The truth is, there is no such person.
The affairs of the state have been honestly administered, and Kentucky's financial condition at this time compares favorably with that of any State in the Union, while the taxation is lower than in any State under Republican rule. These facts will be made plain to the people during the next two months, and before August, Mr. Bradley will find that all the wind with which his speech is inflated will not prevent a signal collapse of his political aspirations.—Louisville Times.

Don Aqua Springs, the Saratoga of the South.

We are credibly informed that this celebrated summer resort has opened this year on June 1st, to guests from any part of the world. Don Aqua Springs is situated upon an elevated plateau twenty-two hundred feet above sea level. This altitude renders the air delightfully pure and cool, so much so that it is sought after by all classes during the hot months of June, July, August and September. It is an acknowledged asylum for all suffering from lung diseases or debilitated from the effects of malaria or other disorders. The resort is situated in a beautiful park of heavy shade trees of about 300 acres. The hotel is a fine building 90 by 210 feet, with galleries twelve feet wide around each floor, providing a promenade of nearly two thousand feet. The ball room and dining room are each 40 by 80 feet. The casino will be in charge of a celebrated chef and the tables will be supplied with every delicacy the country affords during the season. In addition to the hotel's capacity, there are about one hundred cottages situated in the proximity, close proximity to the hotel, so a place can be secured to suit the tastes of all classes either public or private. One of the important additions recently added is the large bathing house arranged with two general departments, one designated for ladies only and the other for Gentlemen.
In this building the various kinds of mineral waters will be utilized in the form of hot and cold bathing, under the directions of two Physicians, a lady and gentleman, one for each of the respective departments.
One of the most important features of this resort is the value of the medical qualities of its mineral waters.
No less than six different kinds of waters issue from the earth within a few feet of each other, including black, white and red sulphur, arsenic, chalybeate and free-soda. These waters are unlike many other mineral waters and are in reality an exception to the general rule, for the reason that they are cool and palatable and immediately become the favorite of guests for their delicious taste. Their medicinal qualities are known by thousands of people, many of whom have been permanently cured by drinking these waters. Another feature we must not overlook, and that is the facilities for music and amusement. A full band of brass and string instruments will be in attendance as well as pianos &c. For more physical exercises there are boating, ten pin alley, billiards and lawn tennis. Nothing seems to be overlooked to make Don Aqua Springs just what it claims this season—the "Saratoga of the South." If any of our readers desire to have a pamphlet describing this resort, and a "Bird's Eye View" of the premises, they can have one free of charge by social career. The special topics in the present part are the attack on Charles Sumner by Preston S. Brooks, and the Dred Scott decision of March 6, 1857. These events are rapidly and clearly sketched, and Lincoln's views of the decision recorded in his own words. The portraits include Sumner, Brooks, Henry Wilson, Anson Burlingame, Dred Scott and his wife, Chief Justice Taney, and Associate Justices McLean, Nelson, and Curtis. This record of the circumstances under which the decision was made has the advantage that one of the authors, Mr. Nicolay, has been for years the Marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States, and thus has had special facilities for studying the subject.

The battle series makes a comprehensive advance with a paper by General E. J. Lee on the Virginia campaign of 1862, entitled "From the Wilderness to Cold Harbor," those two engagements and the intermediate ones of Spotsylvania Court House and the North River being treated in a popular record richly supplemented with illustrations from sketches made at the time, and with official maps. A short article is devoted to the fighting at Spotsylvania, and the North River being the most stubborn contest of the war. The writer is Mr. G. Norton Galloway, historian of the Sixth Corps. The Century's E. J. Lee on the Virginia campaign is a complete resume of the aggregate forces and losses of the Union army in the Wilderness campaign.
Short supplementary "Memoranda" are contributed by General "Donna-Jordan" on "A Missing Confederate Cipher Dispatch," and by General H.
E. Colton on "Union Sentiment Among Confederate Veterans." There is also an editorial article on "Lord Wolsey's Estimate of General Lee," taking note of the numerous and fundamental historical inaccuracies of General Wolsey's recent essay.

An Illinois wife has become a mother on her fourteenth birthday.
Ladies are a good thing, but in a world where they are getting to be so very plentiful it may be doubted whether they should be substituted for dolls.—Courier Journal.
A Lady's Remarkable Testimony.
Mrs. Wilson is the wife of R. H.
Wilson, one of the best known citizens of Hopkinsville, Ky. She has a wonderful cure by S. S. S., which she described in the accompanying letter.
Mrs. Wilson would cheerfully give in detail to any sufferer her thrilling experience and joyful cure. She is enthusiastic over S. S. S. as a tonic for delicate women: HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Feb. 24, 1887.
"Seven years ago, a sore developed on my nose from a finger-nail scratch.
I tried a few simple remedies, but the sore would not yield. I grew worse every year for seven years. Many thought I had a cancer. Over a year ago, I began taking S. S. S., and two dozen bottles had entirely cured me.
When I began with Swift's Specific I was in very poor health, and could hardly drag about. After I had finished the course of S. S. S. I was strong and buoyant and had a good appetite. I regard it as most invaluable medicine for ladies in weak, delicate health. It is a household medicine with me.
Yours respectfully,
Mrs. R. H. Wilson.

Knew When He Had Enough.
A few days since a well known negro man, who was the fortunate possessor of a fine lot of one of the best residence streets of the city, sold his property for $10,000 cash. He was given a check for that amount, which was carried in due time to one of the banks. The next morning the negro who had sold the property for DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
S. H. HUCKLEBERRY,
of Hart County.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, J. W. BRYAN,
of Kenton County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
P. W. HARRIS,
of Mercer County.

FOR AUDITOR,
FAYETTE HEWITT,
of Harlan County.

FOR TREASURER,
JAS. W. TATE,
of Woodford County.

FOR SUP. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, JOS. DESHA PICKETT,
of Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE, THOMAS H. CORBETT, of McCracken County.

FOR STATE SENATOR, SIXTH DISTRICT, ZENO F. YOUNG,
of Hopkins County.

There is no living President or Vice President of the United States, unless we count Hayes.

The publication of the Nashville Union was discontinued June 2, that paper having been merged into the American.

The President and his wife celebrated the first anniversary of their marriage last Thursday by going fishing at Saratoga, N. Y.

In the competitive drills between 30 companies at Washington, the two colored companies came out respectively 28th and 29th.

Judge Jackson has over-ruled the petition of Bill Patterson for a new trial, at Louisville, and sentenced him to hang with Turner July 1.

Natural gas has been found at Glasgow at a depth of only 90 feet. The test was applied and the gas proved to be genuine. The well will be bored still deeper.

The Democratic State Central Committee has divided the State into fifteen campaign districts, in each of which a grand barbecue and public speaking will be held.

Two slight earthquake shocks at Columbia, last Friday morning, reminded the people of South Carolina of the shaking up they received last September. No harm was done.

The Kentucky Press Association should have extended a vote of thanks for staying at home and sparing it a poetical infliction of 39 stanzas.

Following closely upon the report that natural gas has been discovered at Glasgow comes the announcement that Col. Bradley will hold forth there next week. Some people never knew when they have enough of a thing.

The debris of the burned variety theatre at Paris has been cleared away and the corrected list of dead is 70, of which 50 were identified. The others were dismembered and buried beyond recognition.

Sawyer, Rep., who was defeated by a Democrat in New Hampshire, but not by a majority of all the votes cast, has been elected Governor by the Republican Legislature, in accordance with the election law of that state.

Mrs. Annada T. Million has been nominated by the Democrats of Madison county for the office of Superintendent of Public Schools. Madison is Democratic and her election is assured. Why she didn't a woman hold the office? "There's Millions in it," as Col. Sellers would say.

Joe. I. Oliver, a Justice of the Peace in the District of Columbia, removed from office by the President, refuses to recognize the Executive authority or surrender the office and will take the matter into the Supreme Court of the district. Some of them die hard but they must die.

Sam Jones has volunteered to make prohibition speeches in the larger cities of Tennessee during the present campaign. He spoke in Springfield and Nashville Saturday and Sunday night. He has also spoken at Chattanooga and Murfreesboro and will speak at two other points.

The last meeting of the Press Association was a bona fide business gathering of editors and publishers interested in the promotion of the best interests of newspapers. It was well attended considering the circumstances surrounding the meeting and some good work was done. Next year we may expect to see a still larger gathering and a livelier interest manifested in the annual convention.

What has become of the once popular project, the Hopkinsville and Cadiz Railroad? Has the turnpike fever, which struck our neighboring city, quenched the railroad fires that were once dimly burning? Whoopie! neither the turnpike fever nor the Interstate Commerce Bill will cool the ardor or paralyze the spirit of enterprise that once characterized the corporations of the L. & C. R. R. Company.—Cadiz Telephone.

Our people are still hoping that the road in question may be built, but the prospects do not seem to be very flattering at present.

Interesting Meeting at Louisville.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Press Association convened at noon Thursday in the Council Chamber, at Louisville.

The following members were present: John A. Lyne, Henderson Journal; L. W. Gaines, Elkton Progress; H. H. Brown, Franklin Favorite; Boone Denton, Banner, Princeton; T. Leigh Thompson, Monticello Signal; Pat McDonald, Argus, Frankfort; W. T. Havens, Sentinel-Democrat, Mt. Sterling; N. G. Overstreet, Hart County News; W. A. Willgoose, South Kentuckian, Hopkinsville; H. C. Snoddy, Elkton Progress; J. M. Richardson, Glasgow News; Richard Gadsden, J. R. Williams, Bluegrass Clipper; D. T. Fackler, Kentucky Advocate; J. S. Moore, Danville Tribune; N. P. Barclay, Democrat, Bowling Green; I. B. Nall, Farmer's Home Journal; Ben Harrison, Henderson News; J. M. Kerr, Journal, Nicholasville; E. Polk Johnson, Courier-Journal; John D. Woods, Capital, Frankfort; John A. Bowen, West End News, Parkersville; E. G. Logan, Louisville Times; Urey Woodson, Owensboro Messenger; H. A. Sommers, Elizabethtown News; E. C. Colgan, Elizabethtown Messenger; W. H. Eaves, Greenville Echo; Geo. Burroughs, Central City Republican; K. W. Knott, Home and Farm; J. D. Habbage, Breckinridge News; Dan O'Sullivan, Louisville Commercial.

The meeting was called to order by President Hopper, who made an appropriate address.

When Mr. Hopper had concluded Mrs. Alice Hawthorne was introduced and read a poem of welcome. Invitations were taken to attend the Opera Festival and to take an excursion down the river on Capt. J. T. Kitchey's boat.

Col. R. W. Knott then addressed the Association on behalf of the young men's Commercial Club and suggested that delegations be sent from each county to a meeting in Louisville next September to "boom" the state, and its resources. Several gentlemen made remarks approving the suggestions made. Adjourned till 3 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Jas. W. Hopper, President; Dr. John D. Woods, Vice-President; Urey Woodson, Secretary; Ben Harrison, Treasurer; Executive committee: E. G. Logan, W. B. Moody, L. W. Gaines, H. A. Sommers, Pat McDonald and E. Polk Johnson. They will arrange the place and programme of the next meeting.

The Secretary reported that $33 had been collected and that $11.75 remained in the Treasury after paying the expenses of printing and circulating the minutes.

Joe. A. Lyne read a paper on the "Cash System in Subscriptions" which was the only paper read.

The other gentlemen on the programme were all absent.

The Secretary was instructed to have the proceedings printed and circulate the same.

FRIDAY'S SESSION.

A committee appointed to recommend a uniform rate of advertising etc., submitted several recommendations, of which the following were adopted:

"We recommend that no electrotype be accepted unless on a metal base."

"As a uniform rate for foreign advertisements we recommend the adoption of the following: Fifty cents per inch per month per thousand circulation for displays, and sixty cents per inch per month per thousand circulation for reading notices, both to take the run of paper for position. These rates to take effect July 1, 1887, but not to interfere with present contracts."

Advertising agents and other matters were discussed at length.

On motion Messrs. Denton, Moody, Sommers and Neal were appointed a committee to draft a bill to be presented to the Legislature providing for the advertisement of sales by the Marshall, Sheriff and the like, and all other suitable matters. Some discussion was elicited on this point to the effect that such a law would greatly benefit the people. The Chair appointed Messrs. Denton, Moody, Sommers and Neal.

After an interesting session the Association adjourned and an excursion was taken down the river.

NOTES, PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

The convention will probably meet in Louisville next year.

Ureio Ben Harrison made a satisfactory report of the cash on hand.

J. W. Hopper makes a good president, but is most favorable to a motion for adjournment.

Boone Denton, will not be forgotten when the executive committee makes out the next programme.

Loving Gaines did well for his first attendance, and we believe he took more interest in the Opera than any of the members.

Pat Johnson made an able talk on "The Newspaper man and what he is," and his remarks were well received by all present.

Joe. Lyne is a good member and never dodges a subject. He is the only one appointed who came up with a paper to instruct the convention.

Mr. J. M. Wright did not forget that the boys had ears suitable for operative music and eyes especially adapted to the ballet. He has the thanks of the association for the remembrance.

H. C. Snoddy tackled his last glass coming down on the L. & N., but it flew to his head so quickly he could not stand it, and the brakeman had to clean it up for him. Moral:—Never try to stick your head out of a car window when it is down.

Capt. J. T. Kitchey, proprietor of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, gave the members a reduced rate, and an excursion on his steamer, "T. T. Echert," up the river to twelve mile island. Refreshments were served during the trip, and pleasant conversation was indulged in by the many ladies and gentlemen who went along. It was truly a pleasant trip, and Capt. Kitchey's hospitality will never be forgotten.

WM. A. WHEELER

Dies Unhonored and Unsung.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., June 4.—Wm. A. Wheeler died at his home, in Malone, at 10:10 this morning. He remained in a comatose state during the night, and passed peacefully away without a sign of recognition of those about him.

He was born in 1818, studied law and politics and was successively a Democrat, a Whig and a Republican. He served several terms in Congress from New York. Was nominated for Vice-President in 1876 and was defeated with Hayes but counted in by John Sherman and the other conspirators who stole the Presidency. He retired from office and like his partner in crime has since lived in obscurity and was entirely forgotten by the public when his death was announced.

The following telegram is the only one that appeared in the daily papers with the announcement of his death:

"FURNACE, O. June 4.—Mrs. Hayes and I have heard with deepest sorrow of the death of our friend, Mr. Wheeler. I will attend the funeral with my son. R. B. Hayes."

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Sept. 18, 1882. Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Have taken Hall's Catarrh Cure. Had catarrh all my life; am 48 years old. Had asthma 19 years, and a dreadful cough for five years. Have taken everything; went to the Hot Springs; I have doctored with the doctors here; I have done nothing but take medicine for 19 years. When I commenced using Hall's Catarrh Cure, I was almost dead. I sent for the doctor the day I got Hall's Catarrh Cure, and I told him that I would die any way and that I would try your medicine. I was very bad. How I suffered for 9 years! I could hardly breathe at times. I saw Hall's Catarrh Cure advertised in the papers and commenced taking it. I would have been under the ground to-day if it had not been for that. I have not had one bad spell of coughing since. I am breathing my head feels well and I am well. It has done me a thousand dollars worth of good. There are ten of my friends, on seeing what it has done for me, taking it, and it is helping them. I only wish that every one who has catarrh, asthma and a bad cough could see me, so that I could tell them all to take it. All that know me here know how I have suffered. (I have been here since 1858.) and say to me that "I am glad you found something that could cure you." Everyone says, "how much better you look." The doctors say they are glad I found Hall's Catarrh Cure as they could not cure me. I cannot express my gratitude to you for the good Hall's Catarrh Cure has done me. You can use as much of this letter as will do the afflicted good. Publish it to the whole world. It is all true and they should know it. JOSEPHINE CHISHAM, 406 East North St.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The President is soon to visit the Governor of New York. If McMahon went to the mountain, why shouldn't Cleveland go to the Hill.—Courier-Journal.

It has grown to be the sentiment of the Democracy that Billy O. Bradley's speeches need no answering. Let's go on eating our sheep, listening to our own speeches and drinking our own beer, while Billy beats the bushes and bags the ballots for us. His efforts will make more Democratic votes.—Owensboro Messenger.

Yesterday rounded up the first year of President Cleveland's married life. The lovely young creature that he took to brighten the White House and gladden his days upon the earth, has been the object of a tender sentiment that is felt in every man's bosom, and she has added to the popularity of the administration and given Mr. Cleveland a still stronger hold upon the people. The report that Mrs. Cleveland was soon to present him with an heir, thus out to be a correspondent's canard, but it will be just like the good fortune that has always attended the old man, for her to do so just at the very time it will do him the most good, say a few weeks from the next election.—Stanford Journal.

CROFTON.

CROFTON, Ky., June 5, '87.—John H. Myers and Miss Lila E. Clark are visiting Miss Fattie Rowlett, at Rowlett's Station, Ky.

The annual election for school trustees held here yesterday resulted in the re-election of A. G. Bowling. The applicants for the school are greater this session already than last. So it is hard to say who will win, but it looks to a man up a tree like all the Christian county men will be defeated by a gentleman from Hopkins county whose reputation as an instructor in old field schools has never been excelled and we wish they will make such a choice this time.

Born to the wife of Jesse L. Cannon, a boy June 2, 1887.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Woodruff, of Henderson, Ky., and Mrs. J. W. Dilard, of Nashville, Tenn., are the guests of their father, Dr. Row.

KELLY.

KELLY, Ky., June 6.—We are having an abundance of rain and on two days of last week we had hail.

What is looking tolerably well, but the east crop will be short. Corn looks promising in spite of cut worms. While many farmers are doing setting tobacco there are others who have much to set yet.

Mr. V. G. Fields is going to leave our town and return to Maudlin, in Hopkins county. We are very sorry to see him go.

But here we will stop for the best of reasons; we have no more to say. HOPKIN.
